In addition, we may process the following “special category information”:

- Relevant health or medical information (such as in respect of absences)
- Trade Union membership
- Race, ethnicity, or religious beliefs, sexual orientation

Why we collect and use workforce information

We use workforce data to:

- a) enable individuals to be paid
- b) enable safe recruitment and compliance with associated responsibilities
- c) enable and support performance management
- d) inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- e) enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- f) enable equalities monitoring and compliance with equalities duties
- g) enable staff to purchase food

Our legal bases for processing workforce information:

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

- for the purposes of performance of a contract (e.g. contracts of employment, contracts for services etc)
- Where processing is necessary for compliance with legal obligations of the Governing Body (e.g. including but not limited to legal obligations under the Education Act 2002; Education Act 2005, the School Staffing Regulations 2009; the Employment Rights Act 1996, relevant tax law and other employment law obligations)
- Where processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or exercise of official authority vested in the Governing Body (e.g. education functions associated with running a school).

In addition, concerning any special category data:

- Where processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out obligations and exercising rights of the school or staff in the field of employment
- Where processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest (e.g. connected to the education functions associated with running a school)
- Where processing is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine (e.g. where occupational health advice is sought)

Consent

In some circumstances, we may ask you for explicit consent to enable us to process your data. However, this will normally only be where there is no other legal basis for us to process this information. Where we rely on consent, you may withdraw your consent at any time.

Collecting workforce information

We collect personal information via application forms, contractual documents, SIMS (Schools Information Management System), the school's payroll system (SAP) and the school's finance system (PS Financials).

Workforce data is essential for the school's / local authority's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing workforce information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please visit:

T:\Common\Staff Handbook\Data Protection for Hampshire School Records Retention Schedule (this is the retention document we have adopted for use at Eggar's)

Who we share workforce information with

We routinely share some workforce information with:

- The local authority
- The school's payroll provider (Strictly Educational)
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- School External Accountants
- Cashless Catering system provider
- The School's Health & Safety consultant

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about our workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local authority - We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (No 2) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education - The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our children and young people with the Department for Education (DfE) for the purpose of those data collections, under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

We occasionally share workforce information with suppliers (professional HR advisers, occupational health providers, staff absence insurers, legal services and Health & Safety consultancy) to enable the school to receive services that support our legal obligations to staff or for the purposes of fulfilling public tasks.

The use of CCTV

Our CCTV system comprises a number of cameras located on the school premises.

The school uses CCTV for the following purposes:

- to safeguard the welfare of pupils, staff and visitors;
- to protect the school, pupils, parents, staff and visitors from criminal activity such as theft and vandalism;
- to increase personal safety;
- to support the protection of property;

- to aid in the investigation of accidents and incidents and the monitoring of health and safety; and
- to support law enforcement agencies in the reduction, prevention and detection of crime and to assist in the identification, apprehension and potentially prosecution of offenders.

CCTV footage may contain the personal information of those individuals captured by the recording.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold.

To make a request for your personal information, contact:

Janice Finnimore, who is the school's Data Protection Officer.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- a right to seek redress, either through the ICO, or through the courts

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
